Message from the Manager

Your Aquatic and Fitness Center is pleased to offer you and your family many opportunities to create memories this summer. Come and slide down the waterslide. Remember swinging out over a river and dropping in a pool on a hot day when you use our rope swing. On Saturdays, meet the challenge of our climbing rock where success ends with a slide back into the pool. You and your kids can "hide" under the waterfall in our wading pool looking out to see who else is enjoying the warm water. Take a swimming lesson and improve your comfort and skills in the water. Or come spend time together and have a splashing good time.

There are opportunities for you to get your summer workout by swimming laps, using the fitness equipment or joining a water exercise class. Are you up to the challenge of this summer's trip to the National Parks of America? Join our Summer National Park Fitness Challenge and see how many parks you visit along the way. Perhaps you just want to come to soak your muscles after working in the yard all day.

Also, be sure to take advantage of the Special Events throughout the summer. Teens are invited to participate in the Hawaiian Swim/Dance in June. Families can celebrate School's Out For Summer in June; Celebrate Pools, Parks and Play in July; in August come eat a hotdog celebrating the Dog Days of Summer and don't miss out on the first annual End of Summer Block Party. These and our regular activities make the Woodburn Memorial Aquatic and Fitness Center the place for your Staycation this summer. DEBBIE WADLEIGH, MGR.

ALL DAY LIBRARY CLOSURES

Monday, September 6 • Labor Day

Message from the Manager

There will be a lot going on at the Library this summer. We hope you come and check us out, including some of the changes we've just made to the Library:

- All-new chairs at our public Internet computers. They're adjustable, they move, and they're really comfortable.
- Increased Wi-Fi capacity. This service is popular, and now we can accommodate even more users.
- A bigger, better book shop. You can't beat a like-new hardback book for $1.50.

The Library also has a lot of new faces. While I'm not exactly new, I am excited to be the new Manager. Feel free to say hello if you find me in my new office on the main floor. Also say hello to Liana Abakelia, our new cataloger. You can sometimes find her at the youth services and adult reference desks, and you can say hello in English or Russian! Finally, say hello to Rick Koelling, our newest reference librarian.

If you read on, you will see that we are adding new spaces to the Library, including a new area for quiet reading and using laptop computers, and a new teen area. We're offering new products like downloadable eBooks. And we're offering new programs, such as a Summer Reading Program for adults. The old favorites are still here too, including our super popular Summer Reading Program for children and teens, and the ever popular Music in the Park.

There's something for everyone at the Library this summer, and it's all free. We hope to see you soon!

JOHN HUNTER, LIBRARY MANAGER

New Laptop Area and Reading Room

At the time I'm writing this, a local contractor is patching up the walls and carpet at the south end of the mezzanine where we tore out two storage rooms to create more space for our patrons. If you visit that space today, you'll find seating for 18 people, and space for 12 laptop users to plug their computers into electrical outlets built right into the table tops. You'll also find a quiet area for reading newspapers and magazines, which have been relocated to this area. The space is large, it gets lots of morning light, and we're sure it's going to be very popular.

New Teen Room

Do you know any teens? If so, tell them to check out our new teen area. Having a young adult collection is a fairly recent innovation in library science, and our teens have always been forced to share their space, either with children or with the audiovisual collection. As of this summer, we now have a dedicated teen space at the south end of the main level. We have tables for doing projects or homework, comfortable seating, and we have plans for a couple flat-panel televisions for showing movies and videogames. Hopefully by the time you read this, the library will be the proud owner of a Wii Game Console.

We Now Have E-Books

Have you purchased an e-book reader yet, such as the Nook from Barnes & Noble or the Reader from Sony? If you have, the Library now offers free, downloadable e-books as part of our membership in the Oregon Digital Library Consortium. Unfortunately, these books do not work with the Amazon Kindle or Apple's new iPad. E-books will show up right next to print books and audiobooks in your catalog search results. You can find more information and links to the Library2Go website at our homepage, woodburnlibrary.org.

Do you read in Spanish or Russian?

We want to hear from you!

The Library is conducting a survey of its Spanish- and Russian-speaking patrons to help Library staff select new, popular materials that match the needs and interests of our Spanish- and Russian-speaking communities. Anyone who has an interest in our foreign language collections is invited and encouraged to participate. Patrons who wish to participate in the survey may complete a survey form at the Library. The forms will be available at a special display in the foreign language area, just across from the circulation desk. When you've completed the survey, please place it in the box in the display area marked "Return Surveys Here." We'll be collecting them from June 1 through August 31.

Coming soon in Russian and Spanish

The Library strives to provide its patrons with the best service possible and to select materials that are a source of knowledge and entertainment for everyone in Woodburn, regardless of whether they speak English, Russian or Spanish.

With the arrival of our new Russian-speaking library associate, Liana Abakelia, the Library has purchased many new materials for Russian-speaking patrons. New materials include books for adults and children, DVDs, and audio books on CD. We've also put a "new" sticker on all of these materials to make it easier for you to find them. Additionally, we now subscribe to two Russian newspapers ("Argumenty i Fakty" and "Novoe Russkoe Slovo") and two magazines ("Zdorov'e" and "Smena").

Please, come to the

MEET YOUR LIBRARY STAFF LIANA ABAKELIA, TECHNICAL SERVICES ASSOCIATE

Liana Abakelia began her career with the Library in January, and she has already made a positive impact on Library operations. Liana is the library associate in our technical services area, which means she guides the work of the small group of paid employees and volunteers who process, catalog, and repair all of the materials that are purchased for the Library. In any given year, Liana and her coworkers will handle over 5,000 books, DVDs, magazines, and audiobooks.

Liana grew up in Russia, but has lived in the United States for 10 years. Liana is putting her language skills to good use at the Library by selecting an expanded selection of materials (including books, newspapers, magazines, and DVDs) in Russian. Since Liana's educational background is in Russian linguistics, the Library's Russian collection is in very good hands. Liana has also worked as a journalist and as a teacher of Russian as a second language.

TEEN PROGRAM UPDATE

As you may be aware, the City closed both Teen Centers in February 2010, as concerns arose regarding our ability to operate the program to the high standards expected by the community. Following the closure of both centers, we initiated a comprehensive evaluation of the program's operating policies and procedures, oversight, programmatic activities, hiring practices, and overall security. While working through this process, we began developing a solution, which we anticipate will result in the reinstatement of a teen program in early summer 2010.
